Part III REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach, disclose, or suggest the claimed limitations of (in combination with all other limitations in the claim), a print driver executable on a personal computer comprising computer executable code to receive output from an application program and to generate print output from the application program, the print output conforming to a scalable vector graphics language, wherein the computer executable code configured to generate the print output further comprises computer executable code configured to convert absolute coordinate values to scalable vector graphics dimensions which indicate physical lengths using a width and height viewbox designation in the print output in accordance with physical dimensions of an output medium and a desired resolution, as claimed in claim 1. Similar features are claimed in claims 10, 19, 28, and 32. Therefore, claims 10, 19, 28, and 32 are allowable over the prior art of record for the same reasons.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
